

VALE DONALD DENOON

It is with great sadness that we advise the death of Donald Denoon earlier this week, after a short period of illness. Our hearts go out to Mary Mortimer at this time, as well as to their family.

Donald has been a huge contributor to the life of Regatta Wharf and to the wider Jacksons Landing community. Along with Mary, he helped create from the very start of the Jacksons Landing Estate a very strong and vibrant sense of community. As well as being integrally involved in starting and participating in many of the activities, Donald in particular co-founded the Pymont History Group. He has also been a significant force in Regatta Wharf, as a member and chair of the strata committee.

We won't attempt here to address his rich life as a historian, writer and educator but rather acknowledge and celebrate his exceptional contribution to our community in Regatta Wharf, in Jacksons Landing and wider in Pymont. We will miss his kindness, generosity and particularly his good humour and wonderfully dry wit.

Vale Donald. Regatta Wharf Strata Committee

Donald also brought together the stories of 42 Men of Pymont, sequel to Women of Pymont. Both books are still available for $40 each. Email Mary mary.mortimer@bigpond.com to buy copies.

CHRISTMAS IN JULY

Join us for the Christmas in July dinner at The Point – 6.30pm Saturday 27 July. 2 courses for $65, includes a welcome drink - proceeds to Christmas in Pymont.

SINGING CLASSES TAKE OFF

The singing classes at Maybanke have been so successful that they will continue until at least September.

Friends have attended and found it very helpful. They also say they have gained confidence in a fun and supportive environment. Classes are free - every Thursday from 1-3pm at Maybanke, 87-89 Harris Street (above the basketball court).

Love singing and can hold a tune? How about joining Pymont Sings? We charge a fee but can discount it if need be. School terms, Tuesdays 6.30-7.45pm at the Tramsheds - starts again on 23 July. Email Mary for details: mary.mortimer@bigpond.com

PARKRUN NEEDS YOU!

Parkrun is a wonderful free community event, but needs more volunteers to get started in Pymont.

Why not get involved? Parkrun volunteers assist the run director each Saturday - you don't have to be a runner and training is provided. Once we have full funding Pirrama parkrun will be held every Saturday 8am in Pirrama Park.

To get involved in this amazing event or if you have already registered your interest, please send your EMAIL details to pymontpt@bigpond.com or DM 0408 477 778.

BEFORE FAKE NEWS

Johnny Coomber, former editor of AAP, will talk about his life as a journalist and editor.

He had a life-long commitment to developing young journalists and retired after 45 years as AAP's longest-serving employee, ironically in 2007, the year the iPhone changed the world. Never once did he see or know a journalist being asked to write or withhold a story for commercial or political reasons. His stories are fun, intoxicating and 'up front and personal', with history spanning his beloved cricket to world politics. On Sunday 21 July at 5pm join us at the Station to hear the talk and stay for the drinks and nibbles.
