

FAREWELL PETER AND HELEN

Over 100 people gathered recently at Blue Eye Dragon to farewell Peter and Helen Devoy, who are moving to the northern beaches for family reasons. They are sad to leave so many friends, and hope to stay in contact with Pymont Cares, Christmas in Pymont and the walking group. Peter has been a mainstay of Pymont Cares since its inception in 2012. This amazing group of volunteers has provided thousands of pieces of furniture, whitegoods and other household items to over 500 people, working with more than 40 social work agencies in the City of Sydney and significantly reducing the amount of unwanted material going to landfill.

We wish them all the best, and look forward to seeing them from time to time. Pymont Cares always needs new volunteers; contact them at www.pymontcares.org.au

BE KIND TO YOUR CLEANER

Some residents are careless depositing their recycling in the garbage room. Please follow the signs for what goes where - and NO plastic bags or polystyrene! Flatten cardboard boxes to make room for more, and it is easy for one resident to do. But consider the time it takes for your cleaner to separate bottles and cans from everyone's plastic bags and make space for everything. They have enough cleaning to do!

FIND OUT ABOUT PLANS FOR PYRMONT

Everyone is welcome to Pymont Action's open meeting to hear Tim Wise, Council Manager, State Planning Projects, outline plans to implement the state government's Pymont Peninsula Place Strategy. JL Station, 58 Bowman St, Thursday 10 August from 6.30pm. All welcome. Enquiries kenlouden@bigpond.com

THE VOICE - A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

David Hunt is an entertaining and respected historian, the author of several studies on Australian history. He will examine the background of the proposed Voice to Parliament at the next Pymont History Talk.

Sunday 20 August 5pm at the Station, followed by free drinks and nibbles - all welcome.

CITY OF SYDNEY WELLBEING SURVEY

Have you shared your experiences with recreation & arts activities, community involvement and connectedness, physical health and wellbeing, and safety in the city? Complete the survey by 31 August - surveymonkey.com/r/DD53DB8

LOCALS PERFORM FOR YOUR PLEASURE

While away the afternoon, Sunday 13 August 2.30-5.30pm with Silk resident David Rice and his band Class Action. Relax with friends, have a drink or three, dance to the live music at the Kauri Foreshore Hotel, 2 Bridge Rd, Glebe, opposite the new fish market site.

Songs we love to sing

Reflections resident Julie Blewitt has led Cantrice, a fine women's choir, for many years. They will hold a concert on Sunday 20 August at 2.30pm at Harold Park Community Hall in the Tramsheds. $25, Children under 12 and carers free. Proceeds to the Smith Family. Tickets at the door, or contact Julie - julieblewitt@yahoo.com.au, 04011 011 71.

PYRMONT SINGS! HOSTS DINNER

Enjoy the food, the company of friends and neighbours, and sing along with your local community choir. Friday 25 August 6-8pm at the Tramsheds. BYO drink and a small donation.
