

DOORSTEP RECYCLING

Now that you conscientiously recycle food scraps, bottles and cans, paper and cardboard - what can you do with all the other stuff you would like to keep out of landfill?

Doorstep recycling is a free service provided for City of Sydney residents to recycle tricky items such as clothes (new and used), polystyrene, small electronics, empty blister packs, x-rays and more. A detailed list of what they can and can't collect can be found on their website, as well as detailed instructions on collections (weekly, at least two bags, shopping bag size), to be left out in a spot designated by you outside your strata building. Read more and book at doorsteprecycling.com.au

YOU DON'T HAVE TO RUN!

Hundreds join Pirrama Parkrun each Saturday from 8am at Pirrama Park, and run or jog the 5km route around our beautiful harbour. Hundreds more walk, push strollers, lead dogs, carry babies.

Join in every Saturday or once in a while. Register once online and you are set to run, jog or stroll:

SHARE YOUR EXPERIENCE - HELP YOUR COMMUNITY

Do you have an interest and experience in finance, contracts, managing facilities or IT? Time to attend a few meetings a year and contribute to our community association? We need new blood for our subcommittees. Come to the CA AGM at the Station on 9 October and hear more about getting involved. Anyone is welcome to join a subcommittee - come along or ring Mary (0410 679 204) to find out more.

MAYBANKE ANDERSON

Where does the name 'Maybanke' come from?

Many of us pass Maybanke Kindergarden and the Maybanke Community Centre often. But how many know where the name comes from? Who has heard of Maybanke Anderson?

Once a household name to several generations of Australians, today she is almost unknown. Yet her life was interesting, her achievements remarkable, and many of her causes and the activities she promoted are still relevant today.

Come to the History Talk at the Station on 20 October at 5pm to hear Leone Huntsman tell us Maybanke's story, and how she came to know about and admire her well before she came to Pymont. Join us to hear the talk and stay for the drinks and nibbles. And some of us go to dinner afterwards at the pub - all welcome to join us.

Enquiries Peter 0450 974 848.

FREE BUS SHUTTLE SERVICE

The City is commencing a Village-to-Village free shuttle service from Thursday 3 October to operate Thursdays and Fridays only. It will begin with two bus stops in Pymont - in William Henry St near Harris St and on the corner of John St and Harris St. The timetable is being trialled this week and further bus stops will be added as the service is taken up and the driver learns where passengers wish to embark and disembark. This is a very flexible service. Existing bus stops will be used initially. For more, visit villagetovillagesydney.wordpress.com/redfern-to-broadway-via-glebe/
