

JL HELPS BRING SCHOOL FAMILIES TOGETHER

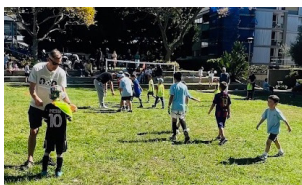

Families from across our diverse community came together for Ultimo Public School's annual family picnic day in Jacksons Landing. This is the local primary school for families living here.

With limited outdoor space at the school itself, the P&C Association reached out to our community for help hosting their special day. The school serves a vibrant multicultural community, with 70% of students coming from non-English speaking backgrounds, making events like this crucial for bringing families together outside the classroom.

Perfect weather blessed the day, which was packed with activities for everyone. Children ran their own stalls while parents fired up the sausage sizzle.

A petting zoo delighted the younger ones, and the highlight for many was watching parents take on students in spirited soccer matches. Face painting, indoor and outdoor games rounded out a day full of laughter and connection.

A PET PROJECT

Keen amateur photographer Theresa Lee has collaborated with many Pymont dog lovers, and showcases their dogs in this exhibition at Audrey Fine Art, 181 Harris St, from 27 October to 1 November.

SHIPS OF SYDNEY HARBOUR 1874 to 1927

Jon Simpson, former General Manager of Sydney Heritage Fleet, is an active volunteer in the tall ships community. He first went to sea professionally as a 15 year old deck hand on coasters in the North Sea. He shares the multidimensional heritage stories of the Ships of Sydney and how they impacted our commerce, governance, transport and leisure.

He will share his stories on Sunday 19 October at the JL Station from 5pm, followed by drinks and nibbles. Enquiries Peter 0450 974 848
